

Schools in Virginia have closed due to COVID-19. However, children and parents are understandably not rejoicing like they normally would at the end of the school year.

Children are anxious with all the talk of death tolls mounting. Hearing, "I don't want to die," from my grandchildren breaks my heart!

Your church like many others is finding ways to reach out to your families with help and encouragement.

Child Evangelism Fellowship® (CEF) would like to make you aware of several resources you can use to reassure children that our Creator God hears and cares. We find that even with 83 years of children's ministry, we must continually find new ways to reach out to children who are hurting and need hope. To view numerous free COVID-19 Resources for children, visit <https://www.cefonline.com/covid19/>.

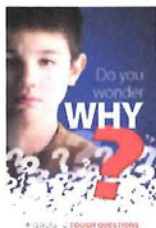

If our local CEF Chapter can help you reach out to children in your area in any way, we would love to do that. Feel free to contact me, or use our website contact page at www.cefpenninsula.com/contact/.
